MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS

New Delhi, the 4th October 1967

G.S.R. 1546.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 300 and clause (5) of article 148 of the Constitution, and after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General of India in relation to persons serving in the Indian Audit and Accounts Department, and in supersession of this Ministry's Notification No. F.2/8/66-Ests.(D), dated the 5th July, 1966, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the reservation of vacancies in the Central Civil Services and posts, Class I and Class II (non-technical) for the released Emergency Commissioned officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union, namely:—

1. Short title, commencement and duration.—(1) These rules may be called the Released Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers (Reservation of Vacancies) Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 29th January, 1966.

(3) They shall cease to be in force on and from the 29th January, 1966.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to all the Central Civil Services and posts, Class I and Class II, other than Engineering and Medical Services and posts.

3. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires,—

(a) "Commission" means the Union Public Service Commission;

(b) the expression "release" (with its grammatical variations) means actual release, after a spell of service, from the Armed Forces of the Union and does not mean release during or at the end of training, or during or at the end of Short Service Commission granted to cover periods of such training prior to being taken in actual service, nor does it cover cases of officers released on account of misconduct or inefficiency or at their own request.

4. Reservation of vacancies.—(1) For a period of five years commencing from 29th January, 1966, 20 per cent. of the permanent vacancies in the Indian Foreign Service, 25 per cent. of the permanent vacancies in all the other Central Civil Services and posts, Class I (non-technical) and 30 per cent. of the permanent vacancies in all the Central Civil Services and posts, Class II (non-technical) to be filled by direct recruitment in any year shall be reserved for being filled by the Emergency Commissioned Officers and the Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union who were commissioned after the 1st November, 1962, and who

(i) in the case of Emergency Commissioned Officers are released according to a phased programme; or

(ii) in the case of Short Service Commissioned Officers are released on the expiry of the tenure of their service; or

(iii) are invalided owing to a disability attributable to or aggravated by

NOTE: (a) Engineers and Doctors employed under the Central Government or State Governments or Government owned industrial undertakings after 1963, who are required to serve in the Armed Forces for a minimum prescribed period under the Compulsory Liability Scheme and who are granted Short Service Commission under the rules during the period of such service, are not eligible for the vacancies reserved for Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces in the Central Services and posts Class I and Class II (non-technical).

(b) Officers belonging to the volunteer Reserve Forces of the Armed Forces and called upon for temporary service are not eligible for the reserved vacancies.

(2) Of the vacancies reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and the Short Service Commissioned Officers under sub-rule (1), vacancies shall be reserved for candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes in accordance with such orders as may be issued in this behalf by the Central Government from time to time.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules or in any other rules relating to the recruitment of persons for the Central Civil Services and posts Class I or Class II (non-technical), the total number of vacancies reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and the Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union and the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes shall not exceed in any year—

- (a) 45 per cent of the total number of permanent vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in that year in the case of Central Civil Services and posts Class I, (non-technical) including the Indian Foreign Service, and
- (b) 50 per cent. of the total number of permanent vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment in that year in the case of Central Civil Services and posts, Class II (non-technical).

(4) Where in any year any vacancies reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union under this rule remain unfilled for want of suitable Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers, such vacancies may be filled in the manner prescribed by the Central Government in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Where in any year any vacancies reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and the Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union have been filled by recruitment in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (4), the number of such reserved vacancies shall be carried forward to the next succeeding year provided that no such vacancy shall be carried forward for more than four years.

(6) If the number of qualified candidates in any one year is larger than the number of vacancies reserved for the released Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union in Class I and Class II Services (non-technical), recruitment to which is made by a competitive examination through the Commission, the names of those who are not appointed shall be kept on the waiting list or lists for appointment against the quotas of vacancies reserved for them in such services in the succeeding year or years.

5. Method of recruitment, age limits, etc. of Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers.—(1) The vacancies reserved for the Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers of the Armed Forces of the Union under rule 4 shall be filled by selection of eligible Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers on the basis of their record of military service and performance at a written examination or a test or an interview as may be prescribed by the Central Government in consultation with the Commission.

(2) (a) No Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer shall be eligible to compete for the reserved vacancies unless he satisfies the following conditions, namely:—

- (i) he should have possessed the educational and other qualifications prescribed for the Service or post at the time of joining the pre-Commission training, or at the time of getting the Commission where there is only

- (ii) he should not have attained, on the crucial date of the year in which he joined the pre-Commission training, or got the Commission, where there is only post-Commission training, the upper age limit prescribed by the Central Government for the Service or post:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes and such other categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Central Government from time to time, to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.

Explanation.—The term “crucial date” means the specified date of the relevant year, prescribed by the Central Government for the purpose of reckoning the age-limit prescribed for the service or post.

(b) No Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer shall be eligible for appointment unless he after release is found to be physically fit according to the rules applicable to the Service or post.

(3) An Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer must produce a certificate from such competent authority as may be prescribed by the Central Government in this behalf from time to time to show that he is an Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer, released or due to be released.

6. Seniority and pay.—(1) Seniority and pay of those candidates who are appointed against the vacancies reserved under rule 4 shall be determined on the assumption that they entered the Service or the post, as the case may be, at the first opportunity they had after joining the training prior to their Commission or the date of their Commission where there was only post-Commission training, that is—

(a) in case of Services or posts recruitment to which is made on the results of a competitive examination conducted by the Commission, the released Emergency Commissioned Officer or Short Service Commissioned Officer who competes successfully at the first or second available opportunity would be deemed to have passed the examination at the first or second occasion he could have appeared at the relevant examination had he not joined military service and shall be assigned the year of allotment correspondingly, and

(b) in the case of Services or posts recruitment to which is made otherwise than through a competitive examination conducted by the Commission, seniority shall be fixed on the assumption that the Emergency Commissioned Officers and Short Service Commissioned Officers would have been appointed on the date arrived at after giving credit for the approved military service as Emergency Commissioned Officers or Short Service Commissioned Officers, as the case may be, including the period of training if any, and shall be deemed to have been allotted the corresponding year for the purpose of fixation of seniority.

(2) Seniority inter se of candidates who are appointed against the vacancies reserved under rule 4 and allotted to a particular year shall be determined according to the merit list prepared by the Commission on the basis of the results of their performance at the examination or test or interview.

(3) All candidates who have been appointed against the vacancies reserved under rule 4 shall rank below the candidates who were appointed against unreserved vacancies in the Services or posts through the competitive examination or test or interview conducted by the Commission corresponding to the year to which the former candidates are allotted.

7. Interpretation.—If any question arises as to the interpretation of these rules, the same shall be decided by the Central Government.

8. Amendment of recruitment rules.—All rules regulating the recruitment of persons to Central Civil Services and posts, Class I and Class II (non-technical), shall be deemed to have been amended to the extent provided for in these rules

G.S.R. 1590.—In exercise of the powers conferred by proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to certain Class IV posts in the Archaeological Survey of India, namely :—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Archaeological Survey of India (Class IV, Non-gazetted Posts) Recruitment Rules, 1967.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 2 of the Schedule annexed hereto.

3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of posts their classification and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 3 to 5 of the said Schedule.

4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 6 to 13 of the Schedule aforesaid :

Provided that the maximum age limit as specified in column 8 of the Schedule in respect of direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes/Scheduled Tribes, Ex-servicemen and other special categories in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

Provided further that, where in any year, three or more permanent vacancies in any of the posts specified in the said Schedule are to be filled by direct recruitment, not more than one-third of such vacancies may be filled by transfer from among the employees of the State Governments concerned, in accordance with the general instructions issued in this behalf by the Central Government from time to time.

5. Disqualification.—(a) No person who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the lifetime of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts, and

(b) no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts;

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied, that there are grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of posts.
